

COURSE DATES:
Friday 25 May - Monday 28
May 2018

COURSE DATES:
Friday 9 November - Monday 12
November 2018

White Water Guide/Rescue 2 Course

ALI is offering 2 separate courses this May & November 2018

TOPICS COVERED IN THE COURSE:

AC Structure, Award Scheme and relevant guidelines
Rescue Techniques
Rescue Equipment
Paddling strokes & technique
Safety & Equipment
Hydrological features
Group Leadership & Management

Take your passion to the next level and learn to teach White Water Paddling. This course is designed for people looking to gain industry qualifications in Guiding WW & Flatwater trips and develop skills towards Instructor Qualifications

TOPICS COVERED IN THE COURSE:

Risk Management
Minimal Impact
Negotiating G2 rapids
Packing for overnight expeditions
Navigation & Weather
Briefing Delivery
Communications

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

$ 660.00 per person

Inclusive of: Course Fees
Instructors/ Assessors Fees
& Camping and National Park Fees.

 Participants will need to pay an additional $150 to register their qualification with Australian Canoeing

Course will need a minimum 5 enrolments to run

Location: NSW Snowy Mountains, Lower Snowy River, Pinch Area

Time: 8am start concluding at 4pm each day, some coursework may be conducted of an evening around the campfire

Accommodation: Pinch Campsite, Barry Way, NSW. Camping
ALI will supply as required: Canoe & Paddle, PFD & Helmet

Participants need to provide the following:

For kayak qualification: Kayak, paddle, PFD, helmet, spray deck, personal paddling clothing (make it warm and not cotton) and throw bag + rescue equipment, if owned. Your own camping equipment (tent, sleeping bag, thermarest etc). Food for entirety of program, keep in mind we may lunch away from campsite.

Verifiable log book, see AC Canoeing web site for details and template

<http://canoe.bvit.com.au/site/caneing/ac/downloads/Education/Registration/Log%20Book.pdf>

To book into one of these courses send an email to info@action-learning.com.au or call the office on 02 6457 2788